

Dr. Nina Fay Calhoun International Relations Award

The Dr. Nina Fay Calhoun International Relations Award was adopted in 2003 as a memorial to the only International President who served two terms and who focused on the International aspect of our organization.

OBJECTIVES

1. To encourage and to stimulate international relations
2. To create an awareness of other cultures and people of the world
3. To recognize outstanding club achievement in international relations

DISTRICT AND INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION

1. Service projects nominated for the Dr. Nina Fay Calhoun International Relations Award are judged each year at District Conferences. First-place winners from each District are entered in the competition at the International level. Established judging criteria are used by Districts and by International.
2. One (1) service project from Clubs-At-Large is included in the competition by International. The Clubs-At-Large Committee organizes the selection process for projects for Clubs-At-Large.

ELIGIBILITY

1. Every Altrusa Club is eligible to enter one (1) international service project each year of the biennium. An international service project is one that directly benefits individuals or communities outside the national borders of the Altrusa club. Clubs can enter any international service project that was:
  - A. Conducted in its entirety during the twelve (12) month period ending prior to the date of submission of entries for judging; or
  - B. Completed on or before the date of submission of entries for judging; or
  - C. Clubs with projects of an ongoing nature may submit for judging those major activities conducted during the twelve (12) month period ending prior to the date of submission of entries for judging.
2. Projects which are primarily fundraising projects or which generate funds for Clubs' use are not eligible for nomination.
3. An Altrusa Club may not submit the same project for either the Mamie L. Bass Service Award and/or the Letha H. Brown Literacy Award in the same biennium.

ENTRY PREPARATION

The entry must be completed and submitted as follows:

1. All entries must be typed. You may submit the entry in written format or you may forward the entry via email or complete the online entry form.
2. Covers must be labeled, "Nomination for Dr Nina Fay Calhoun International Relations Award, name of Club, District, and Club year."
3. The first page must be the entry form, completed in its entirety.
4. The narrative must not exceed 1,000 words, must be typed, double-spaced, and on plain white paper or background. In developing the narrative, Clubs should refer to the judging criteria and score sheet. The following questions must be addressed in the narrative to assist judges in evaluating the submission.

      - a) How was the project structure developed (guidelines, timetables, work assignments, communication, and record keeping)?
      - b) How was each party informed on the progress of the project?
    - 2) What resources were required?
      - a) What resources and fundraising were needed for the project?
    - 3) How was the Club membership involved in the project?
      - a) How were the talents and abilities of Club members utilized?
      - b) What percentage of Club members actively participated in the project?
      - c) How many hours of personal service were contributed by Club members?
    - 4) How was the project supported by individuals and/or organizations?
      - a) What was the extent of participation or support by individuals and/or organizations?
  - C. Evaluation of the Project:
    - 1) Were the original objectives of the project achieved?
    - 2) What was the estimated number of people who were helped by the project?
    - 3) What were the benefits to the international community?
    - 4) Did the project promote community awareness of Altrusa internationally?
    - 5) Supplementary information must not exceed six pages.
5. Award Synopsis:

A 60-word count synopsis of your project is to be provided. This synopsis will not be counted towards the project description word count and will not affect the submission eligibility. The synopsis will be used if your award is selected as a winning entry.

PROCEDURES FOR SUBMITTING ENTRIES

1. Clubs submit entries for the District competition on or before the date established by the District Governor.
2. The winning District entry is forwarded to the International Office by the Governor immediately following the close of the District Conference.
3. The winning entries from the March/April/May District Conferences must reach the International Office by June 1st to be considered in the International competition.
4. The winning entry from Clubs-At-Large for each year of the biennium is forwarded by the Clubs-At-Large Committee to the International Office and must be received by June 1st to be considered in the International competition.

The International Office will acknowledge receipt of each entry to both the District Governor and the President of the winning Club. The International Office will also be responsible for following up with each District to make sure that each District submits each year's winning entries for consideration in the International competition. Finally, the International Office will submit all District entries to the International Service Program Development Committee, who will coordinate the judging activities of the International competition.

JUDGING COMMITTEES

1. The District Governor appoints a Chair of the District Dr Nina Fay Calhoun International Relations Award Committee. The Chair selects three (3) prominent members of the general public to serve as judges.
2. The International Service Program Development Committee coordinates the International judging activity. The Chair appoints three (3) prominent members of the general public to serve as judges.

JUDGING CRITERIA AND SCORE SHEET

1. The judges may disqualify any entry for any rules violation.
2. In evaluating entries, the judges place primary importance on the written narrative. Substantiating materials are considered only in a supplementary perspective.
3. The amount of funds spent on an activity is not a major criteria in selecting award winners.
4. In determining award winners, the judges consider how the Club selected, developed, implemented and evaluated the service project. The questions which follow are what the judges use to evaluate the components of Club projects. A Club must use the information in the preceding entry preparation section, judging criteria and score sheet as a guideline in preparing its entry.
