Defying Gravity takes on many meanings. Somedays it's seeing the array of tasks and narrowing your focus to set your priorities. Other days it is getting done simple tasks when you feel like you cannot answer another question or take one more phone call. Defying Gravity is also when you greet each moment as an opportunity and take joy in assisting your fellow Altrusans with finding solutions, learning new skills and building a team that can overcome obstacles and impact their community with a major impact. That's what these training sessions will help you do.....ZOOM IN THE DIRECTION OF NEW HEIGHTS. This is only the beginning .....If you cannot participate in your call, please designate someone from your club to be your substitute. Also, include anyone who wants to serve in a leadership role at some point. We are supporting you and those who will rise to follow in your footsteps.
